Postdoctoral Liason's Report – Ismael Foroughi

April 11, 2019

As the Postdocs liaison, I was the primary contact of UGSW to the postdoctoral fellows at UNB. By being a member of postdocs bargaining team, I have been working with PSAC delegates to have the collective agreement for postdocs. I had one caucus to discuss the bargaining items with the management and we will have our first bargaining session in the third week of April. I have attended the university sector meeting held by PSAC in Ottawa, where I had a lot of discussion with other Postdocs delegates across the country and got many ideas to use for the UNB bargaining. I have also attended the UGSW executive monthly meetings and discussed the proposed budget for next year with president and treasurer. I had also discussed the terms in the new bylaw with president to add the co-director positions for representing both graduate students and postdocs.

In Solidarity,

Ismael Foroughi
